Contents

1 Werewolf Legends: False, Fabricated or Altogether Absent—Fragments of a Nineteenth-Century Historiography 1
Willem de Blécourt

2 "You Are a Werewolf!" Swedish Werewolf Legends from an International Perspective 21
Willem de Blécourt

3 Of Wolf-Belts, Hungry Servants and Tattered Skirts: The Werewolf in North German Legends 41
Petra Himstedt-Vaid

4 Wolf-Shaped Otherness: Finnish Werewolf Legends Reflecting Suspension from Human Community 75
Kaarina Koski and Pasi Enges

5 Werewolves in Lithuanian Folklore Sources of the End of the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries 101
Jūratė Šlekonytė

6 Legends and Beliefs About Werewolves Among the Eastern Slavs: Areal Characteristics of Motifs 129
Marina Valentsova

7 The Werewolf as the Slavic and Germanic "Other": Czech Werewolf Legends Between Oral and Popular Culture 155
Petr Janeček

8 Werewolves as Social Others: Contemporary Oral Narratives in Rural Bosnia and Herzegovina 183
Mirjam Mencej

9 When the Other Is One of Us: Narrative Construction of Werewolf Identity in the Romanian Western Carpathians at the End of the Twentieth Century 209
Laura Jiga Iliescu

10 A Strange Kind of Man Among Us: Beliefs and Narratives About Werewolves in Southern Italy 237
Vito Carrassi

11 Werewolves in the Western Alps 261
Fabio Armand

12 Running the Fate: Portuguese Belief Narratives About Werewolves 285
Paulo Correia

13 From Type to Cluster: Werewolf Legends in the Netherlands 313
Willem de Blécourt

14 The Werewolf of Hull 339
Deborah Hyde

Correction to: Werewolf Legends C1
Willem de Blécourt and Mirjam Mencej

Index 365